

3000/Lesson 3

READING

Read out loud the transcription of the dictation:

The lion struggled to free himself but could not. His angry roars rumbled through the forest as he became upset and afraid. The mouse heard the lion's cries.

LISTENING

Watch the fable, retell the story in your own words and try to remember the words below.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iPybpc-xuG0>

Why was the lion tired and where did he lay down?

What happened to the last mouse which was crawling over the lion?

What happened to the lion later on and who helped him?

Remember from the context:

hunt, hunting

mouse, pl.= mice

at the foot of the tree

trap, trap sb.

apologize to sb. for doing st.

beg sb. to do st.      He begged the lion to spare his life.

pity sb.

set sb. free

accidentally

struggle

kindness

Good deeds are rewarded.

TRANSCRIPTION OF THE CONVERSATION

Answer the questions

1. What is the opposite of “strong?”
2. Do you read the paper every day?
3. What was your top speed in your car?
4. Who goes on maternity leave and when?
5. What is the largest minority in your country?
6. Do you have high expectations of others?
7. What are your regular monthly payments?
8. What is fifty plus fifty?
9. Do you have flowerpots in your windows?
10. Where is your passport?

And now you create a question from following words:

grandfather

cycle

because/because of prefer

improve